Vorspiel

Strophe

When I wake up in the morning stormy weather outside. Yesterday we were having such a good time, dancing, talking all night long. And then today my life was changing 'cause I've lost my best friend and I suddenly you told me all your love for me has gone.

Refrain

realised how, life makes me feel. From that moment I knew, that that's the way life goes. You know life's not always easy, just get up and grab your chance, even bad times will go over and the sun breaks through the clouds. Yes, I realised how, life makes me feel, from this moment I knew, that that's the way life goes.

Strophe 2:

There's a young girl on the dancefloor, waiting for her great chance.
 Hoping somebody might notice, how exceptional she is.

But the whole show turned out different, she was just not good enough, all the years she had practiced seemed so silly just at once.
